ANNOUNCED AS FINALIST IN NATIONAL KITCHEN AND BATHROOM AWARDS

Dewhirst Kitchens has been nominated as a finalist in the prestigious kbbreview Awards 2012. The national awards are organised by kbbreview, the UK's leading magazine for the kitchen and bathroom industry. The Leicester based business has reached the finals of the Customer Service Award for Kitchens.

Damian Dewhirst, Managing Director of Dewhirst Kitchens, says: "We are delighted to have been nominated for the prestigious kbbreview awards. The secret shopper endorses our aim to offer a tranquil and friendly environment to our customers, relaxing them into our atmosphere away from the busy high street. A friendly and genuine approach from designers who care, with real, professional, in-depth knowledge, expertise and experience.

"Customer service is as important as ever. A large amount of our work comes from past customers, recommendations and referrals are we hope this nomination will give customers more confidence in us."

Tim Wallace, editor of kbbreview says: "The kbbreview Awards set out to recognise and reward excellence in the kitchen and bathroom industry. All the finalists have a passion for this industry and to be shortlisted is such an admirable achievement, and Damian should be very proud.

"It is amazing that the industry continues to produce such great talent in the current economic climate. This year's entries have been superb and the standard incredibly high! We would like to wish Dewhirst Kitchens the best of luck and congratulate them on being chosen as a finalist."
